

Singer songwriter Clela Errington has a voice that is timeless and true, effortlessly reaching beyond technique and trends to wrap you in a warm soul embrace. Clela's vibrant blend of folk and jazz creates the perfect vehicle for her intimate and dynamic vocal delivery, and nowhere are her gifts more evident than in her original songs. Her compelling, unaffected stage presence and easy smile promise something exceptional, and Clela delivers. Juno award winner Alec Fraser produced Clela's 2014 release More Love and Happiness.

"Clela's rich, pitch perfect vocals ease the listener into the images of the first flush of spring... she has it all and she showcases her talents effortlessly on this album." - Carla Farrar, Fatea Magazine

"Much like Eva Cassidy, when you hear Clela sing for the first time, you wonder where this voice has been all your life, and want to hear more." – Bob Mersereau, CBC Radio Canada.
