

MOUNT STEWART

Clela Errington plays Trailside Café

Trailside Café is presenting Toronto-based singer/songwriter and harmonica player Clela Errington, tonight, 8-10 p.m.

Errington was once based on the Island and is a well-known performer to audiences throughout the Maritimes. She has developed a unique harmonica style which she uses in interpretations of a wide variety of folk, jazz and roots material. Her original music selections include instrumental harmonica pieces as well as songs with lyrics.

She has produced two CDs: Lace Curtains and the more recently released In the Eddy (March 2002), which includes her hit single, Shoulder to Lean On. She will be accompanied by guitarist Ed Hutchison.

For those who wish to combine the evening with a meal, the dinner menu will be served until 7 p.m. Call to reserve as seating is limited. For more information, Call 676-3130 or 1-888-704-6595.